Fashion Schooner Coasts to Hambletonian Oaks Triumph

by Ken Weingartner

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — Fashion Schooner followed in the footsteps of her mother as a Hambletonian Oaks winner, rushing to the lead from post 10 and never looking back to win Saturday's (Aug. 6) $500,000 event for 3-year-old female trotters by 2-1/4 lengths in 1:51.2 at the Meadowlands. Pink Coco Chanel finished second, just ahead of the fast-closing Yanaba.

Fashion Schooner's dam, Broadway Schooner, won the 2009 Hambletonian Oaks. Jim Campbell trained Broadway Schooner for Fashion Farms, and the duo returned to the winner's circle Saturday with the homebred Fashion Schooner.

"That's everything," Fashion Farms owner Jules Siegel said about watching Fashion Schooner duplicate her mom's accomplishment. "We still have the mother, and she is producing just what we want her to."

Tim Tetrick guided Fashion Schooner to victory for his third Oaks triumph, moving him into a tie with Glen Garnsey and Ron Pierce for the third most in history. Yannick Gingras holds the record with six, followed by Berndt Lindstedt with four.

After 7-5 favorite Warrawee Xenia went off stride at the start, Fashion Schooner used a :26.1 opening quarter to take the lead from Mon Cheval, and then took the field to the half in :55.1 and three-quarters in 1:23.1.

"I know the first quarter was fast, but my mare was aggressive and she got out of there on the right foot and felt super," Tetrick said. "She didn't have any pressure, so the rest of the work was up to her."

"When it flashed up :55 (at the half), I was happy. From there on, I just kind of let her keep moving on and didn't let anybody get too close. And, you know what? We got the job done."

Fashion Schooner has won five of eight races this year. Her victories include the New Jersey Sire Stakes championship and a division of the Delvin Miller Memorial. For her career, she has won five of 11 starts and earned $468,462.

She was limited to three races as a 2-year-old because of sickness.

"You never know how good one is going to be, but she showed us enough last year where we thought that if everything worked right for her, she had the ability to do it," Campbell said heading into the final. "She has high speed, she's good-gaited, gets over the ground good, and she's got a good attitude. She likes to race."

Sent off at 6-1, Fashion Schooner paid $14.00 to win.

Bella Bellini storms to victory in Hambletonian Oaks

by Ken Weingartner

Bella Bellini came from mid-pack on the backstretch, advanced three-wide around the final turn, and stormed home to victory in 1:52.1 in the $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks, for 3-year-old filly trotters.

Iteration finished second, 2-1/2 lengths behind, and Contested Hanover was third.

Dexter Dunn drove Bella Bellini for trainer Richard “Nifty” Norman and breeder-owner David McDuffee. It was Dunn’s first Oaks triumph and third for Norman, who won with Personal Style in 2012 and Bee A Magician in 2013. McDuffee was part of the Bee A Magician ownership group.

“It doesn’t get old, I’ll tell you that,” Norman said. “Hopefully, we win many more. It’s great fun. I love it. I love this race.”

Flawless Country led the field to the opening quarter in :26.4 before Darlene Hanover took the top spot in a :56.4 half. Iteration, who started from post 10, came first-over and was the leader at three-quarters in 1:24.4.

Lady Chaos and Bella Bellini followed Iteration in the outside flow, with Dunn timing his charge to victory.

“She’s so fast; I just didn’t want to do too much with her early,” Dunn said. “I knew even third-over that she’s got so much speed, I was confident she could pick them up. There was a bit of shuffling the first quarter. I followed Lady Chaos everywhere and it worked out. I was out of trouble, out of that early speed, and she felt great.

“Coming around the last turn, I was just telling myself to be patient. Lady Chaos started to get tired, so we made our move. She picked them up within a furlong, and the rest is history.”

Bella Bellini’s last quarter was :26.3, equaling the fastest last quarter in the race’s history. Last week, she finished second to Lady Chaos by a head in their Oaks elimination.

“The trip worked out great,” Norman said. “We just wanted to be in a position where she could use her speed, and that’s exactly what happened. I think the whole team did a better job having her ready today. She was more comfortable on the track and Dexter drove her great. It was a team effort.”

Bella Bellini, who paid $3.00 to win as the 1-2 favorite, is a daughter of Bar Hopping out of Bella Dolce. She was winless in seven starts at 2 and has won seven of 11 starts this year. She is the first filly to go without a victory as a 2-year-old and win the Oaks since Jalopy in 2005.

“Nifty Norman is probably the perfect guy to train for me because we both have a lot of patience,” McDuffee said. “We knew she had some ability, and Nifty did a tremendous job with her. I’m as happy for him as I am for myself.”

With the Oaks win, Bella Bellini pushed her career earnings to $386,983.

Bella Bellini is the first Hambletonian Oaks finalist for sire Bar Hopping, whose initial crop are 3-year-olds this year. Her dam, Bella Dolce, didn’t race in the Hambletonian Oaks, but enjoyed a successful career, winning 15 times and banking $730,384. Bella Bellini is her eighth foal and fourth $100,000 earner.

David McDuffee bred and owns Bella Bellini. He has not bred a Hambletonian Oaks winner to date.

“I don’t do a lot of breeding, but when I do, I follow my families pretty closely, the ones I like,” McDuffee said. “This family has been so good to me over the many, many years. So, this is pretty special.

“I’ve been in the business for a long time, and you know it’s the thrill of victory and the agony of defeat. You don’t always get the jubilation we had today. It’s a very special feeling.”

Bella Bellini ended up the richest sophomore trotter with $1,111,500, topping colt rivals Jujubee ($948,791) and Captain Corey ($633,853.) She was voted Dan Patch 3-year-old Filly Trotter of the Year.

A native of New Zealand, Dunn moved to the U.S. in the summer of 2018. Since arriving in the States, he has won more than 1,200 races and earned $29 million in purses through August of 2021. He has been named Dan Patch driver of the year for three straight years: 2019, 2020 and 2021.
