CHARLIE MAY (McArdle-Stipple Hanover-Western Hanover)

Did not race in the Breeders Crown at 2. Charlie May was voted Ohio's best 2-year-old male pacer in 2020. His wins last season included the Ohio Sire Stakes championship, which he won with a track-record 1:50.2 performance at Scioto Downs. This year, he won the Carl Milstein Memorial at Northfield in a world-record 1:48.4. His other wins include a division of the Bluegrass Stakes. He was second in the Messenger Stakes and Ohio Sire Stakes championship. He was first across in the finish line in the Meadowlands Pace but placed ninth for interference. Trained by Steve Carter. Owned by Don Tiger. Bred by Don Tiger. He was the first horse Tiger ever bred. When the time arrived for Tiger to name the horse, his wife, April, suggested Charlie. Too basic, Tiger replied. Not that it mattered, Tiger continued, because the horse wasn't going to turn out to be much anyway. "You never know," April said. "Charlie may become a superstar." So, the horse was named Charlie May.
