Sixth Race Comments

By Mike Paradise

Listed in Handicap Order

2—SANDY BOWL . . . Giving him the edge because he has shown he can win on all sizes of ovals, including ours back on June 1. He's in very capable hands. Figures to leave, as will others, and be in contention throughout. May wear these down.

1—BABE KOSMOS . . . She comes into this race the sharpest. Comes off a world record performance and she did it outside the leader the last two turns without cover. Has shown she can get out in a hurry, too. Has a big chance.

3—CROWNING POINT . . . Probably has the best speed of any of these. He's hard to control and he does break at times but when he doesn't, he's awfully good. Has inside post and if he manages to get on top, I don't know if they can catch him.

5—EVITA BROLINE . . . First start in our country and her last was 6 weeks ago. She's the question mark. Reported to have "worked out" in Kentucky with a 1:56 and change mile. If so, she could be the sleeper. I'd consider. The price will be right.

4—OP' ART . . . In top form. He's been beating easier, tho. Has shown he can win on the lead or from behind. With other speed in race, he may choose the latter. Live cover is likely.

1A—SPEED MERCHANT . . . Outside post is a factor. It hurt him last time against Babe Kosmos and Sandy Bowl. Going to need some racing luck to threaten.

1D—WHY NOT . . . Would be a longshot if he wasn't coupled but you don't win over $800,000 in three years of racing unless you're a very good trotter. Likely fast fractions should help this late rusher.

6—GARLAND LOBELL . . . Difficult task. He's a nice horse but he's in very tough. Looks like he likes the front, but so do others in here.

2B—KEYSTONE EDMUND . . . Very impressive qualifier but no starts since July of 1984. Would be a surprise if he crossed the finish line ahead of his entymate.

7—BOBBO . . . He's had physical problems this year. This former male Aged Trotter of the Year had the bad luck to draw the 9-hole, too. He'll be at least 30-1 and he'll probably have to wait another night for win No. 1 of 1985.
